

Dear Chairman Genachowski:

Why allow the marketing of junk food to children disguised as entertainment? What a waste of technology. Why can't children's television be used to provide science-based nutritional information to children and parents?

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Andrew Finnel". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a large initial 'A'.

Andrew Finnel